A message from Kayln Nelson of YM:

To my Holy Spirit Family: I've been blessed to be able to call myself one of your youth ministers for almost 5 years now! It's been such a joy to have so many crazy, fun, and God-filled adventures with our "big kids" (as opposed to my own "little kids") and build relationships with so many families along the way. I've been a part of Holy Spirit my whole life and working here has made it become even more of a second home to me than it already was.

However, the time has come for me to step back from my position in youth ministry and spend more time with my "little kids." As I said, Holy Spirit is my home, so my family and I will still be present here and we will still serve our parish community in different ways. Please pray for me as I begin this new adventure! It will be much simpler, but no less quiet, no less chaotic and no less fun!

A Message from Sarah Elmer of YM:

Thank you to my friend and co-worker, Kayln. I was proud to serve alongside her for the last several years. So, Holy Spirit Family, things will slow down in the world of Youth Ministry as we discern what the role of YM will be in the parish in the coming years. My hours are also a little less this coming year. Please pray for us during this process and have patience as we seek to continue to offer opportunities of discipleship. We will do our best to maintain lines of communication and have a presence in the present, while also looking towards the future and what the Holy Spirit has in store. If you would like to volunteer in any capacity- from office help, to data entry, to sending birthday cards, to being at events, I would sure appreciate it. The more support from our parish family at this time, the more we will be able to continue the walk of discipleship with our youth and families. If you would like to share your own stirrings of the Spirit in regards to the youth of our parish, my door is always open. Otherwise I love a good cup of coffee, so feel free to join me at the coffee shop on Wednesdays or set up a time!
